

Eveline Saupper elected to the Supervisory Board of Hostettler, Kramarsch & Partner

hkp/// expands its strategic leadership body with a view to future growth

Zurich/Geneva/Frankfurt am Main, December 8, 2011. Management consulting firm Hostettler, Kramarsch & Partner (hkp///) has elected attorney and tax expert Dr. Eveline Saupper to its Supervisory Board. She joins the company's two founders, Dr. Stephan Hostettler and Michael Kramarsch, and the other Board Members Prof. Dr. Thomas A. Gutzwiller (President) and Prof. Dr. Peter Leibfried, both from the University of St. Gallen, and Dr. Stefan Vogg, CEO of E.ON Vertrieb Deutschland.

Thomas Gutzwiller, President of the Supervisory Board: "hkp/// has developed very positively since the start of this year. We now have 60 employees. In our core markets Switzerland and Germany, our customer base has expanded organically. Thanks to our partnership with Pay Governance in the USA and our acquisition of the Geneva-based Corporate Consulting & Technology (CCT), hkp/// has also widened its geographical coverage and the spectrum of its activities. Our goal is to drive this growth forward. We are very pleased to welcome Eveline Saupper onto the Supervisory Board. She brings specific competencies and a wealth of experience as a partner in the leading Swiss law firm Homburger and a member of other supervisory boards."

Eveline Saupper studied jurisprudence at the University of St. Gallen, later working for Peat Marwick Mitchell (now KPMG Fides) in Zurich and Baker & McKenzie in Zurich and Chicago. Since 1994 she has been a partner at Homburger AG in Zurich. She is also a member of the supervisory boards of Baloise Group and Homburger AG.
